4. What was her first reaction to Jesus' request? What does this show about her? About the relationship between Jews and Samaritans? What were other human barriers between Jesus and this woman?
5. How did Jesus respond to her retort? What gift did he offer to give her if she asked? (10; Ro 6:23b) Who is he that he can give this gift?
6. When she saw Jesus humanly, why was she puzzled by his offer? How is the living water Jesus gives different from the water in Jacob's well? (Rev 22:1; Jn 7:38; 1:4) How did she respond? Why? Note the progress in their relationship.

* "GO AND CALL YOUR HUSBAND" (16-26)

7. What did Jesus tell her to do? What big problem in her life did Jesus' command touch? When the woman said, "I have no husband," in what respect was she telling the truth and in what respect was she evading the truth? How did Jesus receive her answer?
